IN THEIR FIRST-EVER AMERICAN TOUR, ORDINARIUS BRINGS THE JOYOUS VOCAL MUSIC OF BRAZIL TO FOLSOM

There's nothing ordinary about Ordinarius

(November 20, 2018, Folsom, CA) Comprised of six singers and a percussionist, the award-winning Brazilian vocal group Ordinarius comes to the Harris Center as part of their first-ever tour of the United States. They mix vibrant harmonies and tropical rhythms to breathe new life into Brazil's most beloved songs, from traditional choros to the music of Carmen Miranda. Charismatic and virtuosic, young and talented, their sophisticated musical arrangements are both flawlessly executed and deliciously tasteful.

Ordinarius comes to the Harris Center Wednesday January 16, 2019 at 7:30 pm. Tickets are $18-$32; Premium $38. Tickets for children and students with ID are $12. Tickets are available online at www.harriscenter.net or from Harris Center Ticket Office at 916-608-6888 from 12 noon to 6 pm, Monday through Saturday, and two hours before show time. Parking is included in the price of the ticket. Harris Center is located on the west side of Folsom Lake College campus in Folsom, CA, facing East Bidwell Street.

For their first tour of the U.S., Ordinarius presents a repertoire that is sometimes performed a cappella or with guitar or cavaquinho (a small Portuguese string instrument) and varied percussion instruments. Their repertoire covers the popular songbook, from the American pop of Stevie Wonder, the rock of the Beatles, to the bossa nova of Johnny Alf, the choros of Ernesto Nazareth and the samba of Gilberto Gil.

The ensemble's star is certainly rising. In 2012 they were awarded Second Place in the National Vocal Group Competition promoted by Brasil Vocal; by 2014, they took First Place in that competition. Their first CD was one of the 100 best of the year, and was preselected for the Brazilian Music Awards.
